Island Roots is a free event for high-school students to recognize National Asian and Pacific Islander HIV/AIDS Awareness Day on Tuesday, May 19th, 2009 from 9:30 am—1:00 pm. The event hopes to engage Hawaii's youth in the fight against AIDS and educate them on how to protect themselves from HIV and other STDs. Island Roots will feature Island 98.5 DJ Mento Mele, a Slam Poetry workshop by Kealoha, the "It Could Happen to You" play by Kalihi Palama Health Center, lunch, prizes, and the "HIV in Hawaii" video presentation.
